Project Construction Continues During Hunting Season

As summer closes and Missouri's hunting seasons begin, we want to remind the communities of the construction crews' presence in the project area. Our Mark Twain Transmission Project crews are continuing work in all five counties to create access points along the route, install foundations and build the Zachary Substation. Safety for both our teams and the public remains our top priority, so we ask landowners to notify all hunters using their property of the Mark Twain Transmission Project construction crews. Please remember to wear blaze orange and maintain a safe distance from crews and equipment. Our teams will be wearing high visibility clothing while completing this important project.

Thank you for helping us in our commitment to safety. As always, please contact us with any questions or concerns.

Sincerely,

The Mark Twain Transmission Project Team
